Felix N. FPTI, NASM-CPT

Felix grew up in New York City and the Dominican Republic. His fitness journey began while attending high school in the US. He felt very insecure about his appearance, but initially lacked the motivation to do something about it. The more he learned about fitness, the more hopeful and disciplined he became. Over time, Felix started to focus on building a healthy lifestyle and finding peace of mind, along with meeting his physical goals. Now his goals center around being a source of hope and knowledge for others who may not feel they're capable of turning their lives around.

Felix is a recent graduate of the 600-hour Master Course Program at Focus Personal Training Institute. He is CPR/AED-certified and currently working on attaining his NASM certification. As a Certified Personal Trainer, Felix is ready to do what he's most passionate about: helping you become the best version of yourself.
