Luis T. FPTI, MES, CFSC

A native of the Lower East Side, Luis is a life long athlete playing baseball and football, and participating in Martial Arts, eventually specializing in teaching Tae Kwon Do. After graduating High School, he found that he was able to combine his love of science with his competitive nature when he discovered the world of competitive strength training. Soon, many of Luis's friends and family noticed his impressive results and asked him to start training them. It was then that he decided to pursue a career as a Personal Trainer. As a graduate of Focus Personal Training Institute's intense 700-hour Master course, Luis prides himself on his dedication to education and high quality service and thrives the success of each of his clients.
